Dear Parents/Carers,

As you will be aware comic relief is fast approaching and as always we will be supporting this event in style!

We enjoy putting on a spectacular event and this year is no different! SmFs have helped to organise another 'World Record Attempt' based on the film The Greatest Showman. This will take place on Comic Relief Day – 15th March. Bulphan and St Margaret's will be trying to break the record for the largest number of people singing 'This is me' whilst wearing a beard! The beards will be provided for the children by Smfs and are of course optional, however only children wearing the beards will count towards the number of people in the record attempt. All children will take part in the singing whether they are wearing a beard or not!

We would love for children to come into school on this day in 'circus' or 'Greatest Showman' themed clothes. Alternatively children can wear comic relief themed merchandise or simply wear red. There have been lots of entertainers booked for the day so it promises to be a day to remember!

A sponsorship form is attached to this letter. Please start to collect sponsorship for the event. We'd love to break last comic relief's record of £2,400 raised by both schools. If everyone collects £10 we will certainly beat this! Red noses will be available from the school and more details of the full day will follow nearer the time.

We hope you are as excited as us! Any questions please do speak with school staff who will be happy to help you.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs G Smith
Head of School
